Constructed: 1880 (adobe)

Address--192 North Second West

Present owner--Lila Evans

William H. Winn, three-term Lehi mayor, was born in Pennsylvania in 1833. He emigrated to Utah in 1855 and married a daughter of Lehi's bishop David Evans. He and William Clark established a sheep raising partnership, which made them wealthy. On 26 April 1884, four years after building this home, Winn died there of appendicitis. The house, which was later converted into three apartments, remained in the Winn family until 1946. New owner Will Evans gave it to his son Ferd who along with his wife Lila restored it to its present condition in 1969.
